

February 28, 2007

Pirelli & C. S.p.A.
c/o Porta, Checcacci & Associati S.p.A.
Cristina Cazzetta
Via Trebbia 20
Milano, 20135, Italy

RE: Pirelli & C. S.p.A. v Parisa Tabriz
File Number: FA0702000921798

Dear Sir/Madam:

The above referenced domain name complaint has been received by the National Arbitration Forum and the above file number assigned. However, in reviewing your complaint the Forum has identified the following deficiencies:

- Amend complaint to select a single location of Mutual Jurisdiction, either the location of the principle office of the concerned Registrar or the location of the Respondent.

In order for the Forum to proceed with the arbitration of this case, you are required to rectify the deficiencies within 5 calendar days from the date of this notification, or the complaint will be dismissed without prejudice as required by ICANN's UDRP Rule 4(b). Please note that a revised copy will also need to be sent to the Respondent.

If more than 5 calendar days are needed to correct deficiencies, Forum Supplemental Rule 12(a) provides for withdrawal and reinstatement within 30 calendar days, subject to a reinstatement fee. Please note that a request to withdraw under Supp. Rule 12(a)(i) must be received by the Forum before the end of the 5 day deficiency period.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Alexandra L Rosenbaum Johnson
Case Coordinator

cc: Parisa Tabriz
100 CandyLand Ave.
Peppermint Grove, ID 31338